

Consent to Search and Courtroom Conduct and Attire

- A) Consent to Search;
- B) All persons entering the building that houses the court facilities and the courtroom consent to search of their persons and all property in their possession by entry into the court building and courtroom. There is no requirement for probable cause to search any person or property in the building or courtroom.
- C) While the Court is in session there shall be;
 - 1) No smoking or use of tobacco products, e-cigs, or vaporizers.
 - 2) No reading of newspapers or magazines.
 - 3) No propping of feet on tables or chairs.
 - 4) No loud noises or talking.
 - 5) No food, beverages or chewing gum.
 - 6) No gestures, facial expressions, or sounds indicating approval or disapproval.
 - 7) No inappropriate attire such as; No shorts, cut-offs, low-cut blouses or tops, no skirts or dresses that are short (less than halfway from knee to the top of the thigh); no muscle shirts or shirts without sleeves, clothing with offensive, vulgar, racist, sexist, obscene, lewd, or suggestive words, slogans, depictions or pictures.
NOTE: Any clothing that may cause a disruption to proceedings may result in your case being reset to an alternate date to return without disruptive attire.
 - 8) No hats, caps, bandanas, or any headgear, except with permission of the Judge. Religious attire, such as Yakama's, turbans, and chunis are allowed.
 - 9) No weapons of any type.

- 10) No unattended children. If children are unable to be quiet for court, reasonable attempts will be made to accommodate the party. If all reasonable attempts to control the children have failed your court date may be rescheduled.
- 11) All electronic devices must be turned off.
- 12) No recording devices of any kind may be used. Recordings of all types are prohibited. See Below.

Recording Devices Prohibited in Court

Any request for a record to be made of the trial by either party shall be in writing, filed and submitted to the Court no later than the date and time of the pretrial hearing or at least 10 days before the trial date. No audio or visual electronic recordings may be made or any court proceedings, hearings, or trials. The recording of any court proceedings is prohibited unless the Presiding Judge approves of this, after a written request. The use of any device including a cell phone device, camera, videorecorder, smart phone, laptop, think pad, electronic tablet, etc., and any other electronic devices capable of recording are prohibited from being used in the courtroom. Any person caught recording proceedings without previous approval from the Presiding Judge may be held in contempt of court and may have their recording device seized as evidence.